U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On 9/19/18, during a telephone conversation, this officer thanked Ms. Turner about her honesty concerning the above noted relapse. This officer encouraged Ms. Turner to recommit to treatment and recovery. This officer reviewed treatment options and collaborated with Ms. Turner to create a comprehensive treatment plan. With input from Ms. Turner's treatment provider, a plan was determined and Ms. Turner agreed to follow through with said plan.

This officer informed Ms. Turner that the Court would receive notification about this issue of non-compliance. As an interventional effort, this officer: (a) coached Ms. Turner on risks and potential consequences of illicit drug use; (b) encouraged Ms. Turner to utilize probation staff as a resource; and (c) advised Ms. Turner to work diligently to apply adaptive decision-making. As a response to this non-compliance, this officer re-enrolled Ms. Turner in the Probation Office's PHASE program (urinalysis testing) in order to monitor her substance use. Furthermore, probation staff will: (a) continue to monitor Ms. Turner in the community and (b) facilitate Ms. Turner's skill development. The Probation Office respectfully requests no Court action at this time. This document serves as notification of the non-compliance.
